WELCOME TO TROY UNIVERSITY

The Academic Year 2005-2006 marks a significant milestone in the history of this venerable institution of higher education dedicated to excellence in all of its endeavors. By the direction of the Board of Trustees, Troy State University becomes Troy University in August, 2005, to reflect more accurately its evolving mission and stature.

This name change represents the fifth major advancement in the storied, dynamic rise of the University to national and international prominence. Enabled by an act of the Alabama Legislature in February 1887, Troy Normal School, or teachers college, as it became familiarly known, matriculated its first class in September, 1887.

From the outset, the institution quickly earned a reputation for innovation and accessibility. Troy Normal became Troy State Teachers College in 1929, Troy State College in 1957, and Troy State University in 1967.

The Montgomery campus earned independent accreditation in 1983, as did the Dothan campus in 1985. The Phenix City campus and the locations around the nation and the world administered by University College have always operated under the accreditation of the Troy Campus. In 2005 the separately accredited campuses were merged into a single university structure forming Troy University.
