- “██████████ was an exceptionally mature, skilled intern. Her compassion, skills, and dedication to the care of the client were exemplary. She will be an asset to any group that employs her!”
- “██████████ was proactive and did not need much oversight. She was good about asking questions when needed.”
- “██████████ has been a phenomenal supervisee. She, like all of us, has room to grow and become better but I am confident she will be a great therapist. Due to it being practicum she has primarily shadowed my sessions and we discussed what she gathered about each patient. She has strong insight. She engages primarily with my kid patients and does very well with them. That is where she has gotten most of her hands on experience and she has excelled.”
- “Clarification of and differential diagnostic impressions/assessments.”
- “██████████ has done exceptional in her internship! Amber continues to bring concerns and questions to me, her supervisor, and seeks supervision when needed.”
- “██████████ has done a great job focusing on her client's cases and anticipating their needs. I have received praise from four different parents in regard to the children's progress which they attributed to interaction with ██████████. I look forward to working with her during internship two.”
- “██████████ is improving greatly overall. We have been working on how to deal with crisis but still need more work on implementation.”
- “██████████ is showing great strive in learning the techniques I can see growth with her from practicum, internship I and internship II. She has a knack for doing things in an unconventional way with excellent results. I just need her to be more confidence in her group session and couple sessions. We are working on that along with case notes and the treatment planning. She really has the ability and willing to understand it in a way that she can understand.”
- “██████████ needs more experience in suicidal clients.”

- “██████ has a unique perspective as a mother. She also tries her best to stay with current trends so that she can engage her clients.”
- “██████ communicates very well with students. It seems to come naturally. One area that we have discussed is learning how to leave what's happening at school, "at school!"
- “Intern should improve recording notes from counseling sessions in a timely manner.”
- “██████ does a great job meeting students where they are and connecting with them on their level. She is great with students and supporting their academic, career, and social needs; however, her skills as a future counselor go beyond simply providing support. She is always willing to help out wherever she is needed and looks for ways to make our school environment better.”
- “Student may need to focus on group sessions as they are available at agency.”
- “██████ is very energetic and has the willingness to learn as much as she can about school counseling. She easily builds a rapport with the students she works with and they love her. She is very knowledgeable in the school counseling field and seeks to acquire knowledge when in doubt.”

- “██████████ displays many strengths in organization, resources, lesson planning, and school procedures due to her previous experience as a teacher. She could use further development in community outreach and parental involvement education.”
- “██████████ has great sense of empathy for every person (adult and student). She communicates well when providing counseling to individuals.”

- Gives programs an objective view of the knowledge level of their students.
- Allows programs to examine student functioning in various curricular areas.
- Promotes longitudinal self-study.
- Compares a program's results to national data.
- Stimulates student integration of knowledge learned in separate courses.
- Gives students comparative strength/weakness feedback.

The cutoff score for passing the CPCE can be no lower than one standard deviation below the mean of the most recent national norm. Data from the CPCE pass rates were analyzed each academic year.

EMPLOYER SURVEY

In Spring 2023, the Troy University Employer Survey was emailed to employers of program graduates across all nine (9) locations. The email explained that the survey was sent to collect their views on the preparation and training of Troy University counseling students and that their responses would be utilized in making important decisions in preparing and training students in our programs.

The survey consisted of 17 questions and takes about 7 minutes to complete. It was emailed to 52 employers. There were 10 completed responses received, which is a 20% response rate (66% increase). Of the completed responses received, 70% were associated with Alabama campus locations and 30% from Florida locations.

Overall, the employers rated the program graduates as well prepared for the practice of professional counseling, and 100% of the respondents indicated a willingness to hire program graduates. Specific feedback included a request for graduates to have more exposure to documentation and brief exposure to agency requirements (Medicaid, Mental Health, DYS, DHR, enhanced training in diagnosing, and for school counselors to have more exposure to the state's graduation requirements and reading transcripts (see below for details):

Specific Feedback:

“I don't have any suggestions really. I think this generation's work ethic and sense of entitlement, sometimes prove it difficult to train counselors.”

“Most graduates have been well prepared. Increased focus on documentation and brief exposure to agency requirements (Medicaid, Mental Health, DYS, DHR, and accrediting organizations such as The Joint Commission and CARF) would be helpful to assist the students in gaining a slightly better understanding of what to expect when employed. Some practicum and internship experiences do provide some opportunity for this.”

“More enhanced training in documentation and diagnosing.”

“...I also would like to see more education/training on working with the severely mentally ill consumer. Interns are often shocked/unprepared when they have to perform services for long-term, chronic mentally ill consumers.”

“For school counselors, experiences with graduation requirements and how to read a transcript would be helpful.”

GRADUATE ALUMNI SURVEY

The department has used information from alumni surveys to inform programmatic change. In Spring 2022, the Troy University Graduate Alumni Survey was emailed to program graduates. The email explained that the survey's intent was to collect their views on the preparation and training of Troy University counseling students and that their responses would be utilized in making important decisions in preparing and training students in our programs. Alumni survey results were discussed during the Fall Convocation Meeting.

The survey consisted of 46 questions and take about 15 minutes to complete. It was emailed to 42 graduates. There were 8 completed responses received, which is a 19% response rate.

Results in brief (see full results for details):

The three highest rated areas were: (1) knowledge of ethical/legal standards for professional counselors (99%), (2) “Helping Relationship Skills (97%), and (3) Group Process (91%).

The lowest rated areas were (1) meeting the needs of diverse clients, students, and consumers (90%) and research (93%).

The graduates identified membership within the following counseling organizations: American Counseling Association, ACES, NBCC, ALCA,

Overall, the graduates stated that the program well prepared them for the practice of professional counseling (99%). Specific feedback included:

- “Preparation for work after graduation”
- “I do not think there is something that I can point to that was less valuable. Everything was something to learn.”
- “They prepared their students to make an ethically sound decision.”
- “The academic portion was wonderful and the professors were very knowledgeable.”
- “I feel properly equipped to make sound ethical decisions and seek proper consultation. I was able to set a strong theoretical foundation to start with in practice. When I took the NCE, I excelled in the cultural diversity portion and I give credit to Troy for that.”
