Nov. 22, 1919.

Dearest Father and "Little Mother,"

To-day we received your sweet letter of Oct. 27th and two nice bunches of papers and we surely were glad to get them.

Arthur is writing you all too and even if we do say the same things it will give you the fun of receiving and opening two letters, instead of one. The miscurses of the second line above this one is due to sudden move of your little boy so I know you will pardon it

Well Thanksgiving is nearly here and Arthur and I surely feel that we have more to be thankful for this year than any year so far for each year seems to find us better off in every way and we are so thankful to God for all the blessings we have received.

We have been here in Singing a month to day and we surely have enjoyed it out here. It is a very small place, no society and as a result we are able to live a very quiet life and save a bit of money. Just think by the time you all get these letters it will nearly be Xmas. I don't know whether we will be able to get a turkey or not but we aren't worrying about that, a chicken will go mighty nice.

Poor Bess surely has had a time, please give her my love and tell her I said I hoped she would soon be feeling all right.

at present we have ^{not} any snow as we had a hard rain which not only washed it all away but made walking miserable.

I am working on my spread I started when I was home, crocheting it. When I was in Coblenz I started studying music but of course had to give it up when we moved. Well Arthur is melting the sealing wax and waiting for me to finish this so I can have this letter sealed so with heaps of love to you both and hug, kisses and prayers I am

Your loving daughter,
Joyce.
