

A. Keyton, 1st St. N.C.
F. A. Cobling, Germany.
P.O. 927, A. First G.

Mrs. Anna Williams,

~~14 Starkvant Ave.,~~

~~Newark,~~

Waterford
32 Clifton St. R. F. D. No. 2. U. S. A.
Connecticut,

It has been rumored that all of our men will be out of ~~Germany~~ by Sept. and that they will start the movement next Monte I mean July. So I guess you will have your kids home before so awfully long.

I bought Junior another cute suit the other day, it's pure linen, the pants are tan and the waist is white. I don't want Nellie to know as that is one of the things I have for him. I ^{have} had a pair of kid gloves for Jordie, the cutest things in the world.

I want to get little Clem a Dutch doll, Sister Mother, about Jamie's beaded bag, when I bought Clem + Nellie's I paid about $8 for them but now they sell for 25 to $100 of course that's dues largely to the mark gaining in value so but if by chance the mark loses again I will be glad to get her ones.

I bought a handsome jersey blouse yesterday, it's corn color, and Hon likes it very much.

You see if we come home this summer I will have to be all dressed up, I am 3 planning to go to Paris before I go home and ~~get~~ do some shopping. They are wearing all accordion pleated skirts ~~on~~ even in the suits and feathers on the hats.

We have been saving pretty hard and now we have about $1,500 in the bank. Don't you think that is pretty good?

There are so many things over here I would love to buy but I just can't get them home.

We are thinking very strongly of taking one of our maids home with us, Matilda, she is my second girl and a wonderful ladies maid. Of course I don't have ^{many} buttons to be sewed on or stockings with a ladder for her to fix Ha! Ha! but she massages my hair and helps me dress most of the time. I just adore her and hate awfully to give her up. Lizzie is a good cook but not as sweet and good as Matilda.

Well Mother dear I will close for to-day with heaps of love, hug, kisses and prayers from Howard & I, I am
your loving daughter,
Give our love to Ell. Nell & J. Joyce.